Helping families breathe easier

When Crystal's paycheck no longer stretched far enough, she turned to a Second Harvest Mobile Market to put food on the table for her family, including two children and a diabetic relative. "It's not just food," she said. "It's relief. My kids can sleep and not worry. Mom and dad can sleep and not worry. This gets us through until payday."

That relief changes everything. When families have enough to eat, kids can focus in school, parents can stay steady at work, and older adults, veterans and neighbors stretched thin can keep moving forward with dignity, hope and a little more breathing room for tomorrow.
